THIS GUIDE

This booklet is an update for this second wave of the pandemic and for this darker season as we move from All Saints into Advent.

I'm hugely grateful to the Revd Arwen Folkes in the United Benefice of Blachington & Bishopstone in Sussex for sharing the fruits of her labours and making her templete available to be adapted by other parishes.

These resources are offered to help us all to rely upon and draw close to the presence of Christ at all times, especially in these difficult days. We remain united in the Body of Christ even when kept apart physically and that is embodied most clearly in a shared pattern and form of prayer each day. The church on earth and in heaven is praying 'at all times' and by using these resources we are able to join in this wider community of prayer.

One family, we dwell in him,
one Church, above, beneath.

[Charles Wesley]

Please know that the church is praying always and by using these resources you join in this wider community of prayer. Do look out on our website, social media and your emails for Zoom services and other resources.

SIMPLE FORMS OF PRAYER

- * Lighting a candle and sitting quietly before you pray can help you focus and listen.
- * Jesus taught us the Lord's Prayer so that we would always have words to say. Please do use it, it is a perfect prayer.
- * 'Lord Jesus Christ, son of the Living God, have mercy on me a sinner' is a simple prayer from the Orthodox tradition that is repeated quietly for a period of time.
- * The "Examen", despite its name, is a very simple way to prayerfully review your day with God in five steps
 1. Become aware of God's presence, or ask God to help you remember that he's there with you
 2. Review the day with gratitude (as best you can!)
 3. Pay attention how you are feeling about it.
 4. Choose one feature of the day and pray about it.
 5. Look toward tomorrow. What do you expect the day to hold? Ask God to help you remember that he's with you

MORNING PRAYER (All Saints to Advent)

O Lord, open our lips
and our mouth shall proclaim your praise

All Saints to Advent:

Your faithful servants bless you.

They make known the glory of your kingdom.

Advent:

Reveal among us the light of your presence

that we might behold your power and glory

Blessed are you, Sovereign God,

ruler and judge of all,

to you be praise and glory for ever.

In the darkness of the age that is passing away may the light of your presence which the saints enjoy surround our steps as we journey on.

May we reflect your glory this day and so be made ready to see your face in the heavenly city where. Night shall be no more.

Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God for ever.

The night has passed and the day lies open before us;

let us pray with one heart and mind.

silence is kept

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day, so may the light of your presence, O God, set out hearts on fire with love for you; now and for ever.

Amen

The Word of God

Psalm 42 1-7 or one from the list on page 17

1. As the deer longs for the water brooks, so longs my soul for you, O God.
2. My soul is athirst for God, even for the living God;
when shall I come before the presence of God
3. My tears have been my bread day and night, while all day long they say to me 'Where is now your God?'
4. Now when I think on these things, I pour out my soul:
how I went with the multitude and led the procession to the house of God.
5. With the voice of praise and thanksgiving, among those who kept holy day.
6. Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, and why are you so disquieted within me?
7. O Put your trust in God; for I will yet give him thanks, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning is now, and shall be for ever.

Amen.

Bible Reading (one of these or see page 24: for longer ones)

From All Saints to Advent:

'When you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you.
I will let you find me, 'says the Lord, 'and I will restore your fortunes.'
(Jeremiah 29.12,14)

Advent:

Now is the time to wake out of sleep, for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. (Romans 13.11)

Our Lord says, 'Surely, I come quickly.' Even so; come, Lord Jesus. (Rev 22.20)

Benedictus

Antiphon

They were faithful unto death and God has given them the crown of life.

In Advent

Look towards the east, O Jerusalem, and see the glory that is coming from God

1. Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel:
for he has come to his people and set them free.
2. He has raised up for us a mighty saviour:
born of the house of his servant David.
3. Through his holy prophets he promised of old:
that he would save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all that hate us.
4. He promised to show mercy to our fathers:
and to remember his holy covenant.
5. This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham:
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
free to worship him without fear:
6. holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.
7. You my child shall be called the prophet of the most high: for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
8. to give his people knowledge of salvation:
by the forgiveness of all their sins.

9. In the tender compassion of our God:
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
10. to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning is now, and shall be for ever. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

Prayers

We keep silence or pray in our own words for the church, the world, those we care for, and those in need. Please pray for the parish and those on the pew sheet who have asked for our prayers.

Intercessions may end with:

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you.
Blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God
pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Kyrie

Lord have mercy upon us.
Christ have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.

The Lord's Prayer

Collect and Conclusion (these or the prayer on the pew sheet)

All Saints to Advent

God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, bring us to the dwelling which your Son is preparing for all who love you;
give us each the will each day to live in life eternal;
let our citizenship be in heaven with the blessed, with the whole company of the redeemed and with countless angels, praising, worshipping and adoring your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who sits upon the throne forever. Amen

May Christ who has opened the kingdom of heaven, bring us to reign with him in glory. Amen

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Advent

Almighty God,
give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life,
in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility;
that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal;
through him who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever.
Amen.

May the Lord, when he comes, find us watching and waiting.
Amen

Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God

EVENING PRAYER All Saints into Advent

O God, make speed to save us;
O Lord, make haste to help us.

All Saints to Advent:

Your faithful servants bless you.

They make known the glory of your kingdom.

Blessed are you, sovereign God,
our light and our salvation, to you be praise and glory for ever.

Now as darkness is falling, wash away our transgressions, cleanse us by your refining fire and make us temples of your Holy Spirit.
By the light of Christ, dispel the darkness of our hearts and make us ready to enter your kingdom, where songs of praise forever sound.

Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God forever.

Advent:

Reveal among us the light of your presence
that we might behold your power and glory

Blessed are you sovereign God,
creator of light and darkness,
to you be glory and praise for ever.
As evening falls you renew your promise to reveal among us the light of your presence.
May your word be a lantern to our feet and a light upon our path that we may behold your coming among us.
Strengthen us in our stumbling weakness and free our tongues to sing your praise.
Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Blessed be God forever.

The Word of God

Psalm 112 or a Psalm from the list on page 24

- 1 Alleluia. Blessed are those who fear the Lord;
and have great delight in his commandments.
- 2 Their descendants will be mighty in the land;
a generation of the faithful that will be blest.
- 3 Wealth and riches will be in their house;
and their righteousness endures for ever.
- 4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright;
gracious and full of compassion are the righteous.
- 5 It goes well with those who are generous in lending;
and order their affairs with justice,
- 6 For they will never be shaken;
the righteous will be held in everlasting remembrance.
- 7 They will not be afraid of any evil tidings;
their heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord.
- 8 Their heart is sustained and will not fear;
until they see the downfall of their foes.
- 9 They have given freely to the poor;
their righteousness stands fast for ever;
their head will be exalted with honour.
- 10 The wicked shall see it and be angry;
they shall gnash their teeth in despair;
the desire of the wicked shall perish.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning is now, and shall be for ever.

Amen.

Bible Reading (one of these or see page 24: for others)

From All Saints to Advent:

You have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant.
(Hebrews 12.22a,23b,24a)

Advent:

Watch at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.

(Luke 21.36)

Magnificat

Antiphon

The righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father.

Advent

Lord Jesus, you are the one who is to come,
the one whom we await with longing hearts.

1. My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord:
my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour;
2. for he has looked with favour on his lowly servant:
from this day all generations will call me blessed;
3. the Almighty has done great things for me:
and holy is his name.
4. He has mercy on those who fear him:
in every generation.

5. He has shown the strength of his arm:
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
6. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones:
and has lifted up the lowly.
7. He has filled the hungry with good things:
and the rich he has sent away empty.
8. He has come to the help of his servant Israel:
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
9. the promise he made to our fathers:
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning is now, and shall be for ever. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated

NIGHT PRAYER

The Lord almighty grant us a quiet night and a perfect end.
Amen.

Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

*A period of silence for reflection on the past day may follow.
The following or other suitable words of penitence may be used*

Most merciful God, we confess to you, before the whole company of heaven and one another, that we have sinned in thought, word and deed and in what we have failed to do. Forgive us our sins, heal us by your Spirit and raise us to new life in Christ.
Amen.

O God, make speed to save us.
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever.
Amen.

This hymn or another may be used

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That you, with steadfast love, would keep Your watch around us while we sleep.

From evil dreams defend our sight,
From fears and terrors of the night;
Tread underfoot our deadly foe

That we no sinful thought may know.
O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, your only Son;
And Holy Spirit, by whose breath
Our souls are raised to life from death.

Advent

Creator of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting Light;
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.

Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death an universe,
Hast found the med'cine, full of grace,
To save and heal a ruin'd race.

Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the Bride,
As drew the world to evening-tide;
Proceeding from a Virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all divine.

At whose dread Name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow
And things celestial thee shall own,
And things terrestrial, Lord alone.

O thou, whose coming is with dread
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From ev'ry insult of the foe.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Laud, honour, might, and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

Psalm 4

- 1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness;
you set me at liberty when I was in trouble;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
- 2 How long will you nobles dishonour my glory;
how long will you love vain things and seek after falsehood?
- 3 But know that the Lord has shown me his marvellous kindness; when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.
- 4 Stand in awe, and sin not;
commune with your own heart upon your bed,
and be still.
- 5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in the Lord.
- 6 There are many that say, 'Who will show us any good?'
Lord, lift up the light of your countenance upon us.
- 7 You have put gladness in my heart,
more than when their corn and wine and oil increase.
- 8 In peace I will lie down and sleep,
for it is you Lord, only, who make me dwell in safety.

In Advent

Psalm 143

- 1 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and in your faithfulness give ear to my supplications; answer me in your righteousness.
- 2 Enter not into judgement with your servant,
for in your sight shall no one living be justified.
- 3 For the enemy has pursued me, crushing my life to the ground, making me sit in darkness like those long dead.
- 4 My spirit faints within me; my heart within me is desolate.
- 5 I remember the time past; I muse upon all your deeds;
I consider the works of your hands.
- 6 I stretch out my hands to you;
my soul gasps for you like a thirsty land.

- 7 O Lord, make haste to answer me; my spirit fails me;
hide not your face from me lest I be like those who go down to the Pit.
- 8 Let me hear of your loving-kindness in the morning, for in you I put my trust; show me the way I should walk in,
for I lift up my soul to you.
- 9 Deliver me, O Lord, from my enemies, for I flee to you for refuge.
- 10 Teach me to do what pleases you, for you are my God;
let your kindly spirit lead me on a level path.
- 11 Revive me, O Lord, for your name's sake;
for your righteousness' sake, bring me out of trouble.
- 12 In your faithfulness, slay my enemies,
and destroy all the adversaries of my soul,
for truly I am your servant.

Bible Reading one of the following is suggested

From All Saints to Advent:

The one who endures to the end will be saved. And this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the world, as a testimony to all the nations. (Matthew 24.13,14a)

Advent:

Keep awake - for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say, I say to you all: Keep awake. (Mark 13.35-end)

Silence is kept

Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.
For you have redeemed me, Lord God of truth.
I commend my spirit.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.
Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

Nunc Dimittis

Antiphon

O King most blessed, on the day of judgement number us among your chosen.

In Advent

Come, O Lord, and visit us in peace;
that we may rejoice before you with a perfect heart.

- 1 Now, Lord, you let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.
- 2 My own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people;
- 3 A light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated

We keep silence or pray in our own words

The Collect

Visit this place, O Lord, we pray, and drive far from it the snares of the enemy;
may your holy angels dwell with us and guard us in peace,
and may your blessing be always upon us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord;
and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night;
for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer may be said.

The Conclusion

In peace we will lie down and sleep;
for you alone, Lord, make us dwell in safety.
Abide with us, Lord Jesus, for the night is at hand and the day is now past.
As the night watch looks for the morning,
so do we look for you, O Christ.

All Saints to Advent

May the light of Christ, the King of all,
shine ever brighter in our hearts,
that with the saints in light
we may shine forth as lights in the world
Amen

Advent

Restore us again, O God of hosts; show us the light of your countenance and we shall be saved. Bless and keep us this night and always. Amen

Closing Anthem

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy
Hail our life our sweetness and our hope to Thee we cry poor banished children of Eve to Thee we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn then O most gracious Advocate, thine

Eyes of mercy towards us, and after this our exile show us the Blessed Fruit of Thy Womb Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Advent

Loving Mother of the Redeemer gate of heaven, star of the sea assist your people who have fallen yet strive to rise again,
To the wonder of nature you bore your Creator,
yet remained a Virgin after as before.
You received Gabriel's joyful greeting, have pity on us poor sinners.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Spiritual Communion has always had a place in the tradition of the church, but as we have become so used to being able to attend Mass regularly it has fallen from use until recently.

Settle yourself into a quiet place and allow your attention to silently withdraw from external things. You can do this by breathing deeply and by repeating some reflective verses. For example:

O God, come to my aid;
O Lord, make haste to help me.

When you are stilled, say:

In the name of the Father, of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

and make an Act of Contrition using the Jesus Prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God; have mercy on me, a sinner.

Then pray the Collect for the Day and read the lesson and Gospel from the weekly pew sheet, concluding with a time of silence.

Offer your own prayers ending with the Our Father.

You might like to recall a time when you were last at Mass, or if you find it helpful imagine Jesus, Mary or one of the saints coming to you and holding out to you the Blessed Sacrament as you say:

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Then, make an Act of Spiritual Communion in these words written by St Alphonsus Liguori (1696-1787):

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

As you imagine yourself receiving the host, be still and rest in the love of God. Then conclude your prayers by saying Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesu, hear me.

Within your wounds hide me.

Suffer me not to be separated from you.

From the malicious Enemy defend me.

In the hour of my death call me and bid me come to you, that with your Saints I may praise you,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God

COLLECTS AND OTHER PRAYERS

FOR REMEMBRANCE

O God of truth and justice, we hold before you those whose memory we cherish, and those whose names we will never know. Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm. As we honour the past, may we put our faith in your future; for you are the source of life and hope, now and for ever. Amen.

Merciful God, we offer to you the fears in us that have not yet been cast out by love: may we accept the hope you have placed in the hearts of all people, and live lives of justice, courage and mercy; through Jesus Christ our risen redeemer. Amen.

FOR COMFORT

O God, our sovereign and our shepherd, who brought again your Son Jesus Christ
from the valley of death, comfort us with your protecting presence and your angels of goodness and love, that we also may come home
and dwell with him in your house for ever.
Amen.

Lord God, whose Son, Jesus Christ, understood people's fear and pain
before they spoke of them,
we pray for those in hospital or sick at home;
surround the frightened with your tenderness;
give strength to those in pain;
hold the weak in your arms of love,
and give hope and patience to those who are recovering;
we ask this through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen.
